3. Explanation of Abbreviations

The abbreviations used in this circular are explained in the glossary.

4. Administrative Responsibilities

a. All classes within this circular will be managed entirely by USAG FWA, DPTMS, TSS Division, Schools Section. Unit Schools' noncommissioned officers (NCO) are responsible for submitting a completed School's Request Form to the TSS Division, Schools Section, specifying which school is being requested with the specific date. The TSS Division, Schools Section, will then enroll the Soldier into the specified course. All local courses will be managed through the Army Training Requirements and Resources System (ATRRS) using School Code 422 for Fort Richardson, and 423 for Fort Wainwright.

b. Temporary Duty (TDY) orders: Units are responsible for preparing and funding temporary duty orders for their personnel attending Alaska schools that are not conducted on their installation. If the requesting unit lacks sufficient funds to finance TDY costs, that unit is responsible to coordinate/request additional funding from USARAK G8. This includes all units sending Soldiers to the Northern Warfare Training Center (NWTC).

c. Substitutions, cancellations and deferments: Units are responsible for submitting a memorandum signed by the first O-5 in the chain of command with justification for the action prior to the suspense date for local courses, and 15 working days prior to course start date for Advanced Leaders Course (ALC), Senior Leaders Course (SLC), and functional courses.

5. General

The persons/activities responsible for conducting USARAK schools will ensure that classes begin and end during the time periods established in appendix A, and coordinate changes to class size, schedule, or reporting instructions through USAG FWA, DPTMS, TSS Division, Schools Section at least 45 days before class reporting date. Class changes will be approved by USARAK G3 and USAG FWA DPTMS Schools Section.

6. Reporting Instructions

Appendix A lists the reporting instructions and locations for each course.

7. Suspense Dates

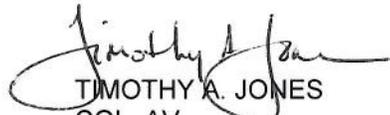

Schools NCOs will ensure school requests are received by USAG FWA, DPTMS, TSS Division, Schools Section, prior to the published suspense date. Published suspense dates for all courses will be followed. Courses with fewer than 50 percent of students enrolled by the close of business on the suspense date may be canceled at the discretion of USARAK G3 and USAG FWA, DPTMS, TSS Division, Schools Section. Appendix B contains a quick reference for suspense dates.

8. Reporting Dates

Appendix A specifies the reporting dates for each course.

9. Quota Distribution

Quota distributions have been established by USARAK G3 and the Senior Mission Command based on Operating Tempo (OPTEMPO).

A-4. Cold Weather Orientation Course—NWTC ATRRS SC 699

a. Scope. The Cold Weather Orientation Course familiarizes commanders and staff officers with the knowledge/skills required in successfully planning and conducting operations in a cold, snow-covered environment. Emphasis is placed on the effects of cold on personnel and material, effects of the winter environment on operations, and planning considerations unique to the winter battlefield and cold regions. Cold weather risk-management procedures are stressed throughout the course of instruction.

b. Prerequisites.

(1) Enlisted personnel. E-8 and above.

(2) Officer personnel. CW3/O-3 and above.

c. Reporting Instructions. Attendees must arrive at the Black Rapids Training Site between 1200 and 1600 on the report date. Due to limited parking at the Black Rapids Training Site, privately owned vehicles and individual government vehicle travel are not authorized. The NWTC is responsible for transportation from Fort Wainwright to the Black Rapids Training Site and return. The DPTMS, TSS Division, Schools Section, will arrange bus transportation if there will be at least 10 people attending from Fort Richardson. The unit is responsible for inter-Alaska travel if there will be fewer than 10 people traveling from a given post. Soldiers arriving without the prescribed clothing and equipment items may be denied admission to the course. Post Exchange facilities will not be available during training; attendees must bring adequate personal hygiene items/sundries to last the duration of the course.

Special Note: Fort Wainwright Soldiers report to Building 3479, at 0800, on the report date. An equipment layout will be conducted before in-processing. An equipment layout will be conducted at Fort Richardson at the discretion of NWTC personnel. All Soldiers are responsible for having the entire packing list, which is available on the NWTC Web site <http://www.wainwright.army.mil/nwtc/>.

d. Class Schedule. See the class schedule below.

11/03	22 March 2011	25 March 2011	04 February 2011

e. Quota Allocations. There are no specific unit allocations; rather, there are 48 slots available for each class to be used as needed by units.

A-5. Cold Weather Leaders Course—NWTC ATRRS SC 699

a. Scope. The Cold Weather Leaders Course trains squad and platoon-level leaders in the knowledge/skills required to successfully conduct small unit operations in a cold, snow-covered environment. Emphasis is placed on the effects of cold on personnel and materiel, use of basic cold weather clothing and equipment, winter field craft, snowshoe/ski techniques and winter/cold regions navigation, and route planning. Attendees will receive comprehensive instruction/training materials enabling them to implement basic cold weather and ski training programs within their units. Cold weather risk management procedures are stressed throughout the course of instruction.

b. Prerequisites.

(1) Enlisted personnel. E-5 through E-7 (E-4 serving in a leadership position may attend as vacancies permit).

(2) Warrant/commissioned officer personnel. WO1, CW2/O-1, and O-2 platoon-level leaders.

(3) Students may not have a P-2 or temporary profile(s) under the P, U, or L columns of the physical profile serial code (numerical PULHES) code or a temporary or permanent profile restricting exposure to cold temperatures. All students must meet minimum physical training and height and weight standards. A security clearance is not required.

c. Reporting Instructions. Attendees must arrive at the Black Rapids Training Site between 1200 and 1600 on the report date. Due to limited parking at the Black Rapids Training Site, privately owned vehicles and individual government vehicle travel are not authorized. NWTC is responsible for transportation from Fort Wainwright to the Black Rapids Training Site and return. The DPTMS, TSS Division, Schools Section, will arrange bus transportation if there will be at least 10 people attending from Fort Richardson. The unit is responsible for inter-Alaska travel if there will be fewer than 10 people traveling from Fort Richardson. There is no separate issue facility at Black Rapids Training Site; Soldiers arriving without the prescribed clothing and equipment items may be denied admission to the course. There are no Post Exchange facilities at the Black Rapids Training Site; attendees must bring adequate personal hygiene items/sundries to last the duration of the course.

Special Note: Personnel from Fort Wainwright report to Building 3479, at 0800, on the report date. An equipment layout will be conducted before in-processing. An equipment layout will be conducted at Fort Richardson, at the discretion of NWTC personnel. A-6. Level 1 - Basic Mountaineering Course (BMC)—NWTC ATRRS SC 699

a. Scope. The BMC trains selected Soldiers in the fundamental knowledge/skills required to successfully conduct small unit operations in typical, mountainous terrain found throughout the world. Emphasis is placed on developing the Level 1 mountaineering tasks described in FM 3-97.61, Appendix A. After successful completion of the BMC, Soldiers are awarded Special Qualification Identifier (SQI) "E", Military Mountaineer, in accordance with DA Pamphlet 611-21.

b. Prerequisites.

(1) Enlisted personnel. E-4 through E-7.

(2) Warrant/commissioned officer. WO1, CW2/O-1, and O-2 platoon-level leaders.

(3) Cadets are authorized to attend this course.

(4) This course is open to all Military personnel throughout the Department of Defense, with priority to active duty Soldiers and those deploying to mountainous regions. Exceptions will be made on a case-by-case basis as approved by the Commander, NWTC. Students may not have a P-2 or temporary profile(s) under the P, U, or L columns of the physical profile serial code (numerical PULHES) code. All students must meet minimum physical training and height and weight standards. Students must not have an uncontrollable fear of heights. A security clearance is not required. Recommendations for academic and physical pre-BMC preparation can be found on the NWTC Web site <http://www.wainwright.army.mil/nwtc/>.

c. Reporting Instructions. Attendees must arrive at the Black Rapids Training Site between 1200 and 1600 on the report date. Due to limited parking at the Black Rapids Training Site, privately owned vehicles and individual government vehicle travel are not authorized. The NWTC is responsible for transportation from Fort Wainwright to Black Rapids Training Site and return.
