

QUESTION: I will be returning to base upon redeployment from Iraq. I am trying to figure out what is the best way to get my POVs there and what options I have. I have never used any Army moves. I have two vehicles in Texas and need to know what the Army will and will not pay for and what is the best way to get them there.

ANSWER: Per the JFTR he is entitled to the shipment of one POV from the Vehicle Processing Center closest to his previous duty station to Fort Wainwright or from his home of record if this is his first duty station. He must have at least a year left in the command when he is ready to ship the vehicle and will be required to have a letter from his commanding officer stating that. The Soldier must contact the transportation Office for a short counseling session regarding the entitlement and process for shipping the vehicle. There is no entitlement for shipping the 2nd vehicle at Government expense.
