

US ARMY GARRISON
FORT WAINWRIGHT, ALASKA
NOTICE OF AVAILABILITY

Draft Environmental Impact Statement (EIS) and National Historic Preservation Act (NHPA)
Section 106 Consultation for Disposition of Hangars 2 and 3,
Fort Wainwright, Alaska

The Army announces the availability of a Draft EIS that analyzes and evaluates the potential environmental impacts associated with implementing reasonable disposition options for two historic World War II-era hangars—Hangars 2 and 3—and supporting infrastructure located on the Main Post of Fort Wainwright, Alaska. The two hangars are contributing structures to the Ladd Field National Historic Landmark and the Ladd Air Force Base Cold War Historic District. Environmental consequences were analyzed for one action alternative and the No Action alternative.

Copies of the Draft EIS are available for review beginning on June 21, 2013, which marks the beginning of the 45-day public comment period, at the Noel Wien Library, 1215 Cowles Street, Fairbanks, Alaska. The Draft EIS may also be reviewed at: <http://www.wainwright.army.mil/env/NEPA/Current.html>.

The Army also requests your participation in the public comment period by attending a public meeting on Wednesday, July 10, 2013, in the Jade Room of the Princess Riverside Lodge located at 4477 Pikes Landing Road, Fairbanks, Alaska. This meeting will be conducted in an open house format, and your participation will assist Army representatives in identifying issues/concerns associated with the analysis presented in the Draft EIS and to fulfill public involvement under Section 106 of the NHPA. Displays and informational material will be available for review from 6:00PM to 8:00PM. A presentation will be given at 6:30PM.

Written comments on the Draft EIS must be received no later than August 5, 2013. Please submit comments to Mr. Matthew Sprau, Directorate of Public Works, Attn: IMFW-PWE (Sprau), 1060 Gaffney Road #4500, Fort Wainwright, AK, 99703-4500; fax: (907) 361-9867; or by email: matthew.h.sprau.ctr@mail.mil.
